BRIDGEWAY HOUSE TO PRESENT ANNUAL STARRY NIGHT DINNER AND AUCTION TO BENEFIT CHILDREN AND FAMILIES WITH AUTISM AND RELATED DISABILITIES

Eugene, Ore. – Bridgeway House will present the 10th Annual Starry Night Dinner and Auction on Saturday, April 2, 2016 at the The Club at Autzen Stadium, located at 2700 MLK Jr. Blvd, in Eugene.

A single ticket costs $100 per person, and a full table of eight people costs $750 per table.

The dinner will be provided by Oakway Catering and begin at 5:30 p.m. The auction featuring auctioneer Sid Voorhees and dancing with live music will follow the dinner.

“This year’s event coincides with World Autism Awareness Day,” said Patricia Wigney, Bridgeway House executive director.

“Every year on April 2, autism organizations all around the world work to aid in research, diagnoses, treatment, and overall awareness, and acceptance for individuals with autism,” Wigney said.

About the Bridgeway House

Bridgeway House is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that was founded in 2002 to offer developmental therapies, enrichment courses, and support to children and families of all income levels with autism and related disabilities. Bridgeway House’s therapeutic programs are designed to help this diverse and ever-increasing group of children meet the challenges of autism and help their families with the emotional, financial, and social challenges they face. Services include therapies, social skills groups, summer camps, parent skills groups, family social events, an annual theatre production, and a private school for children with autism. Bridgeway House offers scholarships for all programs so they are affordable to families from all walks of life.
